

Faculty Ranks Swell With New Additions

Canisius College is seeing a larger turnover in its faculty than in many a year, as thirteen new members take over positions in various fields of teaching and school affairs. Father Joseph Murray, S.J., formerly of St. Peter's College in Jersey City, and Mr. Vincent Stouter, S.J., are new additions to the Biology Department. The latter has just completed graduate work at Fordham University.

Former Dean

The Philosophy Department boasts four new members. Father Joseph Beglan, S.J., former dean of Canisius College and first dean of LeMoyne College in Syracuse, is teaching Senior philosophy. Father has the experience of many years spent in teaching philosophy at Canisius. Father Frederick Helbig, S.J., fresh from graduate work at Fordham, returns to his post of ethics teacher here. Junior philosophy will be taught by Mr. John Milhaven, S.J., who, last year, was at Xavier High School in New York, and by Mr. Robert O'Connell, S.J., an arrival from Woodstock College, the Jesuit seminary in Maryland.

Father Herbert Clancy, S.J., comes from St. Peter's College to head the History Department at Canisius. Father Joseph Muenzen, S.J., who taught many of our fellow students at Canisius High School, will teach chemistry at the College this year. Father Robert Grewen, S.J., arrives to teach Freshman religion. Father is the founder, and until this year has been the director, of Christ the King Retreat House in Syracuse. He is well known as an author of spiritual books.

New Treasurer

A new dean of graduate studies, Father Philip Carroll, S.J., replaces Father John Porter, S.J., who is now teaching at LeMoyne. Father Carroll continues his work in the Biology Department. Father Alvin Mahlmeister, S.J., is the new treasurer of the College, and comes to us from St. Andrew-on-

Hudson, Poughkeepsie, where he held the same position.

Arriving from Fordham University, Brother Carl Seitz takes charge of Christ the King Chapel.
