

Dean Announces New Courses In Summer School Curricula

Rev. Richard Grady, S.J., Dean of Canisius College, today announced a program of two courses for the Summer School Session which will open on July 6 and conclude on August 12. Rev. Joseph F. Belgan, S.J., former dean, will act as director of the session.

Fifteen new courses will be introduced at the current session of the Summer School. Among these courses are: Social Security and Payable Tax Accounting, conducted by Mr. Frank Blanchfield, A.M.; Clinical Psychology, conducted by Dr. Francis W. Gramlich, Ph.D.; Educational and Vocational Counseling, conducted by Dr. Armando R. Carli, Ed.D.; Radio Technique and Practice, conducted by Dr. Martin I. J. Griffin, Ph.D.; the Rise of Dictatorship in Post-war Europe, conducted by Mr. Edward Barrett, A.M., LL.B.; the Parables of Christ, conducted by Rev. John P. O'Sullivan, S.J.; and Italian for College Students, for which course no instructor has been appointed as yet.

Model Studio

Dr. Griffin, director of the course on Radio Technique, will be assisted by the production staff of the Buffalo Broadcasting Corporation. The facilities of stations WGR and WKBW will be available for auditions. A model studio will be set up at the College and every effort will be made to approximate broadcasting conditions.

Among new members of the Summer School faculty are: Miss Caroline Bouwhuis, instructor in Education; Dr. Constance M. Griffin, instructor in English; Rev. James J. Redmond, S.J., visiting professor of philosophy. Visiting instructors and professors also include: Rev. T. Joseph Brown, S.J., Chemistry; Rev. Harold L. Freatman, S.J., Biology; Rev. William A. Glaser, S.J., Philosophy; Rev. Anthony M. Guenther, S.J., Latin; Rev. Kerr J. Keane, S.J., History; Rev. John C. Mullen, S.J., Psychology; Rev. F. Fay Murphy, S.J., Ph.D., Sociology; Rev. James D. Nugent, S.J., Ph.D., Psychology; and Rev. John P. O'Sullivan, S.J., Psychology.

Social Program

Miss Bernice Armstrong and Miss Marie A. Fitzpatrick will have charge of the social program for the Summer School Session. The directors have arranged a program of tours, outings, teas, and bridges for the students and the faculty.